Experience

Rafal Ofierski has extensive experience in representing public entities as a litigator and as an advice attorney. Before joining Renne Public Law Group, Mr. Ofierski was a San Francisco Deputy City Attorney for over twenty years. As a Deputy City Attorney, Mr. Ofierski specialized in labor and employment law, but he also handled property tax, elections, eminent domain, and other public law matters. Mr. Ofierski defended the City in administrative, trial court and appellate litigation, and he briefed and argued cases in the California Courts of Appeal and in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Mr. Ofierski also advised City departments on labor and employment matters, and he supervised workplace investigations.

Before he worked for the San Francisco Attorney's Office, Mr. Ofierski was a Deputy in the Indiana Attorney General's Office. There, his practice included criminal appellate law as well as civil trial and appellate litigation ranging from eminent domain to occupational safety and health cases.
