

Taylor "Tae" Evans

Associate

(415) 848-7251 • tevens@publiclawgroup.com

Bar Admission

- California

Education

- University of California, Berkeley School of Law, J.D.
- University of California, Berkeley, B.A.

Experience

Tae Evans is an associate. Prior to joining the firm, she was a Deborah L. Rhode civil rights fellow at Sanford Heisler Sharp McKnight LLP, where she primarily worked on employment discrimination cases. During law school, Tae was the editor-in-chief of the Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law and Justice and the public interest chair of the Law Students of African Descent, in addition to serving as a student advocate with the International Human Rights Law Clinic and the East Bay Community Law Center. She also completed internships with the San Francisco Human Rights Commission and the Clooney Foundation for Justice. Upon graduation from Berkeley Law, she earned Pro Bono honors for completing over 150 hours of service.

PRESENTATIONS

- Public Employment Relations Board (PERB) Updates, County Counsels' Association of California, Employment Law Spring Conference, April 2025.